

Facial Ultrasound Imaging Hands on Course May 12, 2022 4:00 – 5:30 PM

Provider-ship: This activity is jointly provided Medical Education Resources, Inc., a non-profit medical education company, and The Symposium for Cosmetic Advancements & Laser Education (SCALE).

Education Grant: Full notification of commercial support and educational grants will be provided in the final course syllabus.

Target Audience: This activity has been designed to meet the educational needs of primary care physicians, specialty physicians (dermatology, plastics, ENT, oculoplastic), physician assistants, nurse practitioners, registered nurses, allied health professionals

Statement of Need: In recent years aesthetic products and treatment options in injectables, devices and minimally invasive techniques have continued to dramatically increase in popularity. With the influx of new therapies, technologies and procedures in dermatology and aesthetic medicine it is imperative for aesthetic providers to remain up to date on the safety and efficacy of these products for the best patient outcomes.

Program Overview: The Facial Ultrasound Imaging Hands on Course will provide innovative education, skills, and techniques that attendees can immediately adapt into their current practice environment to provide safe, effective, and high-level patient care. This hands-on course will teach attendees the benefits of using ultrasound technology in facial aesthetics to ensure safe and effective injection technique. The course will be led by internationally recognized expert in facial ultrasound and anatomy.

Educational Objectives: After completing this activity, the participant should be better able to:

- Assess the benefits of utilizing ultrasound technology for guided anatomy mapping and injections to prevent complications
- Review how to perform an Ultrasound examination of the face and injecting and identifying fillers under Ultrasound guidance.
