

SCALE Disclosure of Financial Relationships

In accordance with CME standards and SCALE policy, all authors and presenters are required to disclose any financial relationships with ineligible companies within the past 24 months. This information helps ensure scientific balance, objectivity, and transparency in educational content.

Name and Degree: _____

Relevant Financial Relationships

Please disclose all financial relationships (in any amount) with ineligible companies within the past 24 months. Ineligible companies are organizations whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients. Examples include pharmaceutical companies, medical device manufacturers, and distributors of aesthetic products or technology.

Commercial Interest	Nature of Financial Relationship	(Include all those that apply)
	What was received? Salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit	For what role(s)? Employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and 'other activities' (please specify). Note: Contracted research includes research funding where the institution gets a grant and manages the funds. If you are a principal or named investigator on the grant you must disclose this information. If you are not named on the grant, you do not need to disclose.
Example: Company 'X'	Honorarium	Speaker, Consultant, etc.

If you have more relationships to disclose, please continue on the reverse side of this form.
